McGuire Scores 33 As Gibsonburg Trips Clyde 29 Points Surpasses Record

BY AL COXON

IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT THE MARCH OF Dimes campaign in Ohio starts next Wednesday, we are printing the following release from state headquarters in Columbus:

A young high school athlete now totally paralyzed by infantile paralysis suggested today that each Ohio high school play one basketball game to raise funds to fight polio.

Jim Kreischer, 18, Bowling Green, made his suggestion in a letter to Richard L. Kroesen, Ohio Chairman for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis March of Dimes. The youth, unable to use his arms, dictated the letter to a nurse from his respirator in The Toledo Hospital.

CLYDE, Dec. 29-Chuck Mc-Guire scored 33 points as Gibsonburg walked off with top honors in the annual Clyde invitational basketball tournament here last night.

The veteran center pushed in 14 goals and five fouls in leading his team to a 62-40 victory over Clyde. In the consolation prelim, Attica went into an overtime to shade York, 50-47.

McGuire maneuvered to get in the varsity clash closing out behind Clyde's defense for shots as his teammates were able to The Streaks' next regular get the ball to him.
