Blade champs recall successes of 1996 season

By STEVE JUNGA

BLADE SPORTS WRITER

The final Blade boys basketball poll for the 2002-03 season is complete and has a 1996 feel in the upper three divisions.

Trivia question: What do the poll champions in Divisions I, II and III have in common?

Answer: Call it the "seven-year itch," if you will, but St. John's Jesuit, Ottawa-Glandorf and Archbold all reached the state championship game in their respective divisions in 1996, with all three losing heartbreakers in the finals that year under their current head coaches.

St. John's, 24-4 that season, lost 59-56 to Cincinnati LaSalle in D-I; O-G (24-2) fell 64-63 to top-ranked Orrville in D-II, and top-ranked Archbold (26-1) was upset by Casstown Miami East 58-53. None of the three have reached the final-four of the state tournament since.

This season, 24th-year St. John's coach Ed Heintschel guided his team to its ninth City League championship, including eight in the last 11 years. The Titans (15-4), ranked 13th in the final Associated Press state poll, avenged a 64-54 CL regular-season loss to Libbey in last week's league title game.

St. John's, last year's Blade and state poll champion in D-I, jumped up to No. 1 in the final week of this year's Blade Poll when prior No. 1 Fremont Ross (17-3), the Great Lakes League champion, lost its regular-season and GLL finale 89-86 to visiting Sandusky in overtime last Friday night.

In Division II, veteran

Ottawa-Glandorf coach Dave Sweet's Western Buckeye League-champion Titans (17-3) repeated their Blade Poll title, won last year when they finished 24-2 with a regional final loss against LeBron James and Akron St. Vincent-St. Mary. O-G, ranked No. 4 in Ohio last year, ended 15th in the state poll this season.

In Division III, 19th-year Archbold coach Doug Krauss guided his Blue Streaks (17-3) to their eighth Northwest Ohio Athletic League title during his tenure. The Streaks were not ranked in the final D-III state poll.

The lone area unbeaten during the regular season was Midland Athletic League champion Tiffin Calvert (20-0), the state's top-ranked team and Division IV Blade champ.
